Who we are
Who is providing this notice?	SELCO Community Credit Union and SELCO Group, Inc.
What we do
How does SELCO Community Credit Union and its affiliates protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We also restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees and volunteers who need to know the information to provide products or services to you.
How does SELCO Community Credit Union and its affiliates collect my personal information?	 We collect your personal information when you: Open an account or apply for a loan. Apply for any credit union service. Visit our website, provide us information on any online application or transaction, or provide us information by email. Use your credit or debit card(s) or pay your bills. Make deposits to or withdrawals from your accounts.
	We also collect your personal information from others, including credit bureaus and other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?	 Federal law gives you the right to limit only: Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness. Affiliates from using your information to market to you. Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you.
	State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
Definitions
Affiliates	Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. • Our affiliates include companies such as SELCO Group, Inc. (providers of products and services, including insurance).
Nonaffiliates	 Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. SELCO Community Credit Union does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you, except in connection with our joint marketing arrangements.
Joint marketing	 A formal agreement between SELCO Community Credit Union and a nonaffiliated financial company where we jointly market financial products or services to you. Our joint marketing partners include providers of investment and financial services and insurance companies.
